

SEMINAR: INNOVATIVE FLEXIBLE WORKING TIME ARRANGEMENTS AND THE FUTURE OF WORK

Salón de Grados - Campus Madrid
Puerta de Toledo de la UC3M
(Ronda de Toledo, 1, 28005 Madrid)

15.11.2024

9:00-9:15	Registration & welcome
9:15-9:30.	Introduction Jesús R. Mercader (UC3M)
9:30-10:00	The 4 Day Week: an economic approach Discussant: Joan Sanchis (University of Valencia) Moderator: Ana B. Muñoz (UC3M)
10:00-10:30	The role of trade unions in the flexible working time arrangements Discussants: Giovanni Casale (CES) and Aude Cefaliello (ETUI). Moderator: Klara Bomstra (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
10:30-11:00	Pros and cons of flexible work arrangements: the experience of PRL INNOVACIÓN Discussant: Jorge Tubio (PRL INNOVACIÓN). Moderator: Ana B. Muñoz (UC3M)
11:00-11:15.	Coffee break
11:15-12:15	The case studies in Ireland, France, The Netherlands, Finland, Hungary and Spain Discussants: Dagmar Schiek & Mary Naughton (University College Dublin), Nuria Ramos (University of Salamanca), Minna Van Gerven (University of Helsinki), Sára Hungler (Elte University) and Francisco J. Gómez (UC3M) Moderator: Iciar Alzaga (UNED)
12:15-12:45	The survey of the INNOVAWORKING project Discussants: Jesús Cruces Aguilera (Fundación 1º de Mayo (CCOO)) Pablo Gimeno (University Complutense of Madrid) Moderators: Lourdes Sánchez-Galindo/Víctor Maneiro (UC3M).
12:45-13:30	The Spanish labour market reform of working time Discussants: Fernando Luján de Frías (UGT) and Raquel Boto (CCOO); Jorge Martín Blanco (CEOE-CEPYME) Moderator: Adrián Todolí (University of Valencia)
13:30	Closure

Funded by the European Union

